BM25 Ranking Function

BM25 is a ranking function used by search engines to estimate the relevance of documents to a given search query. It is based on the probabilistic retrieval framework and improves upon TF-IDF by considering document length and term saturation.

The BM25 formula introduces two parameters:
- k1 controls term frequency scaling
- b controls document length normalization